

Rule 621

COSTS

No costs are assessed against a respondent who is exonerated. In cases where admonition, cease and desist, or discipline is adjudged, costs must be equitably assessed. Costs may include court reporter charges for the recording and preparation of transcripts for depositions used in evidence or for other proceedings before the Commission, witness fees and expenses, and the docket fee.

[History: New rule adopted effective May 1, 2019.]